

By converting a hay barn into an office,

adding additional living space to connect to the existing shop, and adding a patio out front for comfortable outdoor seating and eating....

you get a nice home!

An open floor plan with space to entertain!

And an office for business

